

TEAM KENYA: They Came, They Saw and They (Almost) Conquered

Victory goes to those who are daring enough. Hassan Ali Joho, Ledama Olekina, Mohammed Ali (Moha JichoPevu), Anwar Loiptip and Ann Mwangi Mvurya are very bold people.

5. President University of Nairobi Students' Union (UNSA)

Pnina Salmasa aka Ann Mwangi Mvurya

PNINA SALMASA

The cases of Ann Mwangi Mvurya - President UoN Students' Union (UNSA) and Mombasa Governor Hassan Joho have proved that there are many Mossad agents embedded into Kenyan society, as part of their plan to conquer and colonise Kenya as soon as possible.

Note that, out of Kenya's 47 elected senators, I have only named 2. Out of hundreds of elected MPs, I have only named 1.

The Objective - The EndGame

The plan to conquer and colonise Kenya through the back door is nearly complete.

How many other Mossad-Kenyans are operating in the country undetected? Hundreds? What roles are they playing, unnoticed, in the plot to conquer Kenya?

This is what I think the plan is (if this is not their plan, then their plot is very likely a close variation of what I will present here):

Sometime next year, both Joho and Olekina would defect to Deputy President William Ruto's faction of Jubilee party (or whatever party he will be controlling then).

With their backing, Ruto would win the 2022 presidency in the first round.

A few months after Ruto is sworn in as president, they would start releasing AUTHENTIC documents proving Ruto's extraordinary corruption over the years, and other scandals (docs they are keeping hidden for now).

Kenyan's would become very angry with Ruto and his government.

With their near total control of the local media (by then) - they would be controlling 98% of information-flow in Kenya, from the current 90 - 95% - they would embark on a massive media and social media-led drive to convince Kenyan's that "time for revolution is now".

Most Kenyans - very angry at the government because of the saucy corruption details of senior government officials - would genuinely support the call for a “revolution”. In towns and villages across the country, demos would be held in support of the “revolution”.

Within weeks, a leader of the “students, youth and workers revolution” would “emerge” - Ann Mwangi Mvurya.

Ms Mvurya would be hailed by international media as an African heroine, representing the future of Africa.

Suddenly, close allies of President Ruto, led by Hassan Joho, Ledama Olekina, Mohammed Ali (Moha JichoPevu) and Anwar Loitiptip, would hold a press conference, announce their support for the “revolution”, and demand that President Ruto and his government must resign.

Millions of Kenyans would begin a march to State House. President Ruto would flee and seek asylum in another African country.

By December 2023, twenty-something years old Ann Mwangi Mvurya would be the interim Kenya President, with Hassan Joho as deputy President. Top Cabinet Secretaries in the interim administration would include Ledama Olekina, Moha JichoPevu and Anwar Loitiptip.

They would promise that free and fair elections would be held within 2 years.

The Kenya “revolution” would be hailed all over the world as a great success.

Within a few months of being installed as President, Ann Mwangi Mvurya would win the Nobel Peace Prize.

They would now be controlling 100% of information-flow in Kenya.

If you did not support the interim government, they would know about it, through backdoors in computers, phones and other electronic devices. They would then shadow ban you, so that what you write online cannot be seen by anyone else.

The interim government would be, ipso facto, an autocratic government, but the outside world wouldn't know about it.

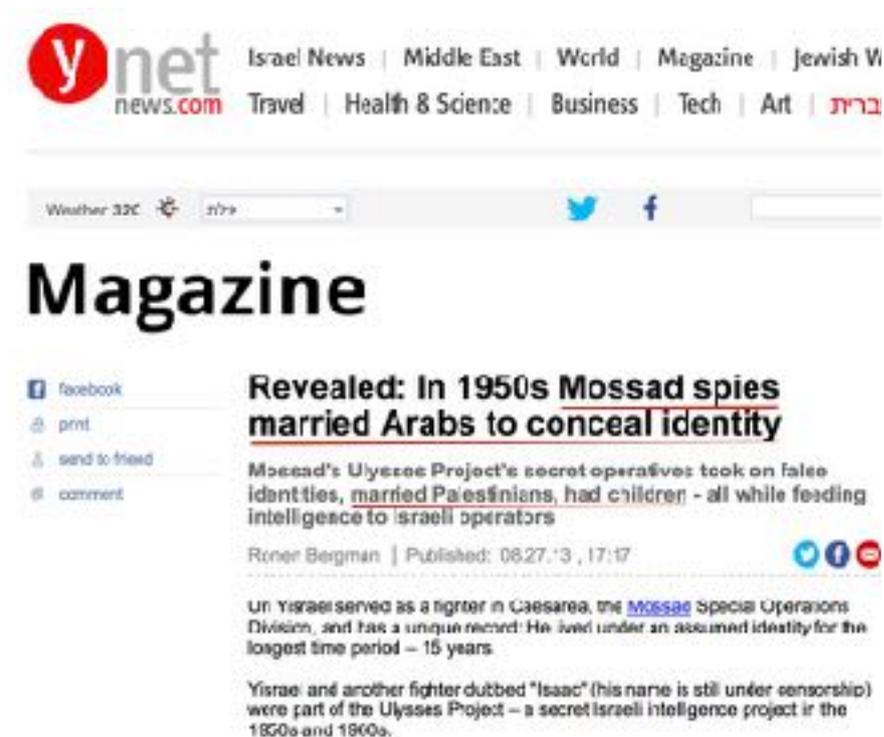

The interim government would be guaranteed to win any elections called.

Kenya would have been colonised by a foreign power without firing a single shot.

Kenyans would become the most miserable people on earth, but the rest of the world won't know it.

Opinion polls would be showing Kenyans are the happiest people in the world.

The rest of Africa would be envious of Kenya.
