

Why Ruto Considers Maina Njenga the No.1 Threat to His Rule

Kenya currently has a secret police unit, whose job is to ILLEGALLY abduct prominent citizens the government believes are a threat to its interests, whether business or political.

This never happens in a real democracy.

Last month, this STASI-like secretive unit kidnapped prominent businessman Jaswant Singh Rai.

2 days later, William Ruto implied - publicly - that he had ordered Rai's abduction.

On Saturday - 16th September 2023 - politician Maina Njenga was abducted from his home in the outskirts of Nairobi, by the same police unit.

This was the 3rd abduction of Maina by this police unit this year.

It is important to note that, in all these cases, the names of the abductees soon started trending on social media, raising much curiosity, and thus probably making the state agents to release their victims due to panic.

Citizen TV Kenya ✓

@citizentvkenya

Ruto Threats & Rai Abduction:

Mystery surrounds abduction of businessman

Jaswant Rai was freed on Sunday after Friday abduction

Victoria Commercial Bank CEO questioned by police

President Ruto accuses Rai of sugar sector sabotage

#MondayReport

2:22 AM · Aug 29, 2023 · 11.3K Views

Azimio: Maina Njenga grabbed by killer police unit

Monday, September 18, 2023

Former Mungiki leader Maina Njenga, personal assistant missing

Sunday, September 17, 2023

What is going on?

With regards to Rai, Ruto said publicly that he was determined to use extra-legal means to take over sugar milling business from him.

(I posted this @X as "Why Ruto is Scapegoating Asian-Kenyans"/same title on pdf, available online)

Regarding Maina Njenga, it is a whole different 'ball game'.

However, these police abductions are not just about Maina and Rai - they are about rule of law, or rather the lack of it.

That is how Adolf Hitler started.

Martin Niemöller:

"First they came for the Communists

And I did not speak out

Because I was not a Communist

Then they came for the Socialists

And I did not speak out

Because I was not a Socialist

Then they came for the trade unionists

And I did not speak out

Because I was not a trade unionist

Then they came for the Jews

And I did not speak out

Because I was not a Jew

Then they came for me

And there was no one left

To speak out for me".

Why Ruto is Terrified of Maina Njenga - And Considers Him the No.1 Threat to His Rule

When I first read online news about Maina's 'first' abduction by police early this year, I was really surprised, because I hadn't seen any important news about him for a long time.

And the last time I had seen anything about him in the media, he was definitely not among the top 50 prominent politicians in Mt Kenya region, leave alone in the whole country.

I checked on social media, to see what was happening.

Interestingly, almost everyone online was also asking the same question: "Why has Maina Njenga been kidnapped by police...What has he done..."

Nobody appeared to have a clue about why police would suddenly target Maina.

Whenever I encounter these type of situations, I always check out what the Kenyan impostors are saying.

In the weeks following Maina's 1st abduction, I realised that the impostors now consider him a major threat to Ruto's interests in Mt Kenya region (And destiny of Kenya, for the past few years, is being determined by what happens in that region politically).

What surprised me was that, the impostors were openly calling for Maina's assassination.

The impostors appeared to suggest that, Maina Njenga was the biggest threat to Ruto 'maintaining his grip on Mt Kenya politics', and if Maina was not 'eliminated', then Ruto would have a rough time there politically...

If you tell the average Mt Kenya resident that Ruto considers Maina as his no.1 political threat in Mt Kenya currently, the person would likely laugh, and tell you, "he cannot even be elected as an MCA here..."

NOTE: Currently, Maina lives like a fugitive. He knows they want to kill him. That is why he always makes sure he is never alone - and in those times he has been kidnapped by the secret police, he was in the company of other people, hence reason the kidnapping news spread so quickly...

To understand why someone who was never a major political player in the country, or even in his native Mount Kenya region, yet is now a major player in deciding the country's destiny, one has to take into consideration the fact that there is FEAR in the Mountain - like that last experienced during the State of Emergency in the 1950s.

Fear in Mt Kenya

Several weeks ago, I watched a video where passengers in a matatu in Nyeri were asked about their opinion regarding increased fuel prices, and the consequent increased fares.

All of them said something to the effect, "It is good...We support it..."

No way any reasonable person, even a Millionaire, would celebrate increased travel costs, WITHOUT ANY ADDED SERVICES/COMFORTS.

FEAR.

FEAR of saying anything, that might be construed to mean you don't support Ruto's govt 100%.

Certainly, this bizarre situation cannot go on forever.

But Ruto's handlers are determined to ELIMINATE anyone who is capable of MOBILISING Mt Kenya people to reject living in fear.

The problem with this state of affairs in central Kenya is that, the people who 'don't want trouble', are the most likely to be eliminated first, while those who reject fear, survive past these very sad times in the region.

EXAMPLE: Joss is from Mt Kenya region.

He understands that the political situation in his home area is very odd.

To avoid trouble, he doesn't talk politics.

One day, he goes to a hotel in a nearby town, and orders a cup of tea.

The waiter asks him whether he wants 'tea with sugar', or ndubia (tea without sugar).

Joss takes some time to answer, because, he really wants 'tea with just a little sugar'.

The waiter - who, like Joss is also nervous about the local political situation - becomes suspicious, and tells Joss, "Why are you reluctant to state whether you want ndubia, or tea with sugar? Or you suspect we are serving sugar bought from the contaminated consignment Kuria imported?"

And just like that, the situation escalates...Reaches secret police...and one day, Joss just disappears...

Dynasties vs Hustlers

Generally, prominent Mt Kenya politicians who understand what is going on - and obviously knows Ruto is a fraud - have been 'OTHERED', by being labelled 'Dynasties'.

Even if a Mountain person comes from the poorest family in his village, studied hard, and made it, as long as he 'climbed the corporate ladder' genuinely - and obviously knows Ruto is a fraud - he has also been 'OTHERED' as a 'Dynasty'.

In essence, using the various tricks I have been writing about for years, these people managed to OTHER every prominent Mountain person who did not bow down to Ruto, and using P S Y O P S, managed to convince a lot of Mountain folks that Ruto was equivalent to Mwene Nyaga (Owner of the Ostrich) – a FALLACY.

Obviously, they didn't think Maina Njenga could present problems...Until it was too late.

They cannot label him a 'Dynasty', because even their own supporters wouldn't believe it.

They cannot label him a puppet of so-and-so, since he has been a relatively well-known public figure for almost 30 years...

And to make it even worse, Maina can actually fill a big stadium with his supporters!

Imagine this happening in the Mountain - Locals seeing on TV, Kikuyu people speaking openly about how evil Ruto's regime is, and thousands cheering in support of those comments?

The fear the Mountain people currently have regarding the ruling regime would evaporate...

They would start speaking openly about their problems...Ruto would lose political support...

Ex-Mungiki leader reveals what abductors asked him

Maina Njenga was released in Limuru on Sunday night 24 hours after he was reported missing

by Zadock Angira
@PeopleDailyKe

Former Mungiki leader Maina Njenga was on Sunday night released after 24 hours of alleged abduction.

This is the third time he has been held incommunicado.

Njenga, who later appeared in court yesterday morning for the mention of a case, was reportedly released in Limuru, Kiambu county, at around 10.15pm and his abductors gave him Sh2,000.

Yesterday, Makadara Law Courts Chief Magistrate Tito Gesora was urged to issue protection orders against police officers over harassment of Njenga.

"They blindfolded the accused to an extent the abductees could not tell in which part of the country they were," lawyer Ndegwa Njiru told the court.

Another lawyer, Evans Ondieki, asked why a State officer should be hooded, saying: "He or she should give honour to the office. It is only criminals who hide their faces."

The lawyers also said confiscated items including mobile phones must be returned to the accused.

The Directorate of Public Prosecutions (DPP), however said they needed a further mention for the investigating officer to

Former Mungiki leader Maina Njenga (centre) with his lawyer Ndegwa Njiru (left) leave Makadara Law Courts yesterday. PD/PHILIP KAMAKYA

They later drove him back to Banana area, not very far from where he had earlier been abducted. The abductors did not identify themselves nor did they say he was under arrest.

Lawyer Njiru has accused police of being behind the abduction.

He was released just hours after Azimio leaders demanded his immediate release.

Narc Kenya leader Martha Karua, Wiper boss Kalonzo Musyoka, Democratic Action Party leader Eugene Wamalwa and Jubilee Secretary General Jeremiah Kioni had on Sunday afternoon said Njenga's abduction was an attempt to distract Kenyans from him," said Karua in a statement she read on behalf of the coalition.

"Kenya Kwanza has failed. It is getting desperate and it will get increasingly brutal and dictatorial. We have to stand firm, fight and demand our freedoms and all other rights," Karua added.

According to Karua, the abductors were part of the Operation Support Unit that terrorised Kenyans during the anti-tax protests, adding that the unit was "alive, active and determined to intimidate and harm Kenyans".

Cash bail

WINNING

If Maina Njenga and other patriotic Mt Kenya politicians can join hands and plan a public rally, to be attended by Mountain politicians ONLY (since Mt Kenya is where the problem is, and other regions are actually ready for you-know-what) - in a big stadium, eg Thika stadium - and notify police as per the laws of the land...Only 2 possible outcomes:

(a) If government obeys the constitution, the rally goes ahead - Mountain people get their democratic rights back.

Patriotic Mountain leaders would use the public rally to talk about local problems, and suggest solutions.

They would inform the people how Ruto's regime is deliberately ruining local economy - and propose solution to that.

They would tell the people how the ruling regime is destroying the future of local youth, and how that problem can be solved.

They would highlight how, when local youth become hopeless due to joblessness, the country's no.2 mocks them, by telling them that he would fund their 'rehab'.

The leaders would remind Mt Kenya people that, when local students admitted to university to study prestigious courses like medicine, and cannot afford it due to recent increase in fees, hence driven to suicidal thoughts, the person closest to the country's no.2 offers to pay for their counselling...

During the public rally, patriotic Mt Kenya leaders would educate the people that, the rule by the natural-born conmen and sadistic narcissists in KK government is untenable, and that there is a solution...

They would highlight the fact that, currently, there are divisions in the ruling regime - one side wants to keep lying to Kenyans that 'economic problems are global', while the other side is demanding that Kenyans be told the truth, that chances of local economy improving are NIL.

Yet, the quarrelling sides in govt agree about one thing - Eating public funds is good...

(b) If government disobeys the constitution, and blocks the rally, post the police statement/videos on social media. We spread them, tagging Western Powers' diplomats, politicians et al who have been claiming Kenya 'is the most stable democracy in Africa...'

The way the world is - it is hypocrisy, I know - if Kenyans really push it on social media that, in our country, freedom of speech/assembly/association is being abused by state, most of Ruto's western backers will get cold feet, because they know their voters wouldn't want them propping-up a tyrant (unless he is offering them lots of oil).

If Mt Kenya politicians plan this rally soonest, and one of the above happens, then we all go to the next stage...

NATION

EDUCATION PRIME

Education for the rich: Concern as thousands set to miss out in new varsity funding model

Friday, August 11, 2023

University education will likely be out of reach for thousands of students who will miss out on government funding under the new financing model, as only those with deep pockets will afford it.

CS Alice Wahome accuses PS of insubordination in battle for control of Athi water agency

Sunday, September 17, 2023

A battle for the control of billions of shillings at Athi Water Works Development Agency has escalated into a vicious boardroom war that has sucked in Water Cabinet Secretary Alice Wahome and her Principal Secretary Kipronoh Ronoh, a Sunday Nation investigation shows.

Athi Water Works Development Agency is one of the most lucrative government units under the Water docket.

Tasked with undertaking the development, maintenance and management of national water works in Nairobi, Kiambu and Murang'a counties, it has an annual allocation of about Sh20 billion, which is almost half of the entire ministry's budget.

The government agency also receives huge financial support from many other development organisations and partners, including the World Bank.

Harun N. Kimani

Twitter: <https://twitter.com/alloddsmobile>

Email: kimanih@harunkimani.net

<https://semaukweli.wordpress.com/>

19th September 2023